

LIVE FROM CAMPUS
AN EDUNIVERSAL STUDENT REPORTER ON EACH CAMPUS

We are glad to announce the forthcoming creation of a student's reporters network, "Live From Campus". This new free service reserved to the 1000 Best Business School of the EDUNIVERSAL's Official selection, was designed to meet the information needs of students about campus life:

- The principle is simple: a student is chosen by campus to be the reporter for Live from Campus.
- Live from Campus is a network of young reporters worldwide and a web of blogs dedicated to the Eduniversal Business Schools.
- Each school has its own dedicated blog. All the blogs are connected through the LFC platform.
- Each reporter runs the blog dedicated to his school enabling thousands of students to follow the news of the campus.
- The reporters are guided by the Student World News Agency advisers.

With Live From Campus, we give students a real opportunity to make known the daily life of their Business School and its environment.

PROVIDE A NEW CONTENT: FROM STUDENTS TO STUDENTS

"Live From Campus" is the first website to broadcast information that encourages and facilitates international student mobility.

In fact when a student chooses a place to study, he takes into account, not only the academic dimension of the Business School, but also the general environment (activities, campus facilities, cultural and sport events, associations, etc.).

Therefore in a serious yet playful manner, "Live From Campus" gives the voice to students who are experiencing their campus first-hand.

INTERNATIONAL INFLUENCE FOR YOUR SCHOOL : HIGHLIGHT YOUR PROJECT THROUGH YOUR REPORTER

A blog is allocated to each Business School, the student reporters are able to give their global impression about their campus.

Those reporters write about life on their campus, the different activities and events, the registration process and international studies, the things to do in their city, etc.

The blog is mainly an opportunity to highlight the special features of the school, and create a greater proximity to students, through, for example, interviewing key people in the school.

Because information plays such an essential role, our aim is to make it available to a maximum amount of students, in order to achieve student mobility!

YOUR STUDENTS ARE YOUR FIRST AMBASSADORS

Who better than a student from your school can promote and develop the project and the life of your Business School with students from around the world?

Any student can be a reporter. They can either be a student from the Business School or any faculty of the University.

They just have to apply on this website: <http://www.student-world-news-agency.com>

Eduniversal would be grateful if you could recommend some students of your Business School to become the official reporter of "Live From Campus".

We would like to thank you in advance for your support and we are looking forward to collaborate with your students.
